HON. R. B. GLENN IS NOW GOVERNOR

Great Crowds Attended the Inaugural Exercises Wednesday

CEREMONY WAS VERY IMPRESSIVE

The New Governor Made a Splendid Appearance and Was, as Usual, the Master of the Crowd.

Raleigh, Special.—Long before the arrival of the Winston train which brought Governor Glenn to Raleigh, at 12:25 o'clock, the union depot was crowded. The several bands stood in readiness. When the train came in and the gates were opened the people flooded through into the car shed and struggled for positions from which the Governor and his party might be seen. The Forest Hill Band, uniformed in olive green and gold, headed the procession, followed by the Third Regiment Band. Only one company of militia had made entrance into the railroad yard—the Maxton Guards. They had Mr. Glenn's picture pinned upon their breasts. A dozen or so Confederate veterans followed the soldiery and then came Mr. Glenn. "Three cheers for Governor Glenn!" cried Insurance Commissioner James R. Young, but the people did not catch on, and the response was faint.

The Governor occupied a carriage with his mother, a beautiful old lady who looks far younger than her years. His wife, whose fine black eyes and features indicate a resolute character, and his brother, Mr. E. T. B. Glenn, of Georgia. In the next carriage came the Governor's daughter and niece and their escorts, and behind these a procession of carriages containing prominent people. Under the exhiliarating influence of martial music they proceeded to the Yarboro, where Mr. Sherwood Higgs informed the occupants of each carriage as they alighted that the Governor's party would in a few moments resort to the capitol.

BIG CROWD AT THE CAPITOL.

At the capitol, round about the Vance statute, was gathered in waiting an immense crowd. The young ladies of the Baptist University occupying the vantage ground. Just at the time appointed for the Governor's arrival there, the unsympathetic heavens began to weep and hundreds of umbrellas went up. Huddling under the shelter, the folks waited until word came that the ceremonies would be conducted in the Academy of Music.

There was a tremendous demonstration when Governor Glenn came forward to be sworn. Dozens of Glenn flags sprang into evidence and the activity of the hats and handkerchiefs and stamping was a sight to see. This done, Governor Aycock advanced to the speaker's table. He looked over the 3,000 people and taey grew quiet "Ladies and gentlemen," said he, "I have the honor to present to this magnificent body of people Hon. Robert B. Glenn, the Governor of North Carolina."

Governor Glenn's speech occupied 45 minutes, beginning at 2.15. It was interrupted frequently with applause, the heartiest being when he turned to Governor Aycock and said: "The State can well say to the retiring administration, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'" When the people burst into cheering Governor Aycock's face flushed and his eyes filled with sudden tears. The next biggest applause was in the response to this: "Let us take no backward step in the education of the masses." The new Governor was in fine trim, dressed faultlessly, his voice good, and himself the master of the crowd as usual. It was touching to see the intense interest and pride with which his mother, even more than his wife and daughter leaned forward to catch every word and glanced from time to time at the crowd. She was unfortunately behind a lady with a big hat, and had to sit in an uncomfortable position in order to see her boy.

The Inaugural Address.

Gentlemen of the General Assembly, Friends and Fellow Citizens:

Four years ago, at the close of an administration that engendered bitterness between the races, and promoted riot instead of peace, the present retiring administration commenced its arduous laoors, under an amendment to our organic law, far-reaching in its provisions, and untried as to its results. Enemies of the measure predicted that dire calamity would follow its enactment and enforcement, that race prejudice would be deepened, and lawlessness and disorder prevail; while its friends claimed, ...at by curtailing the negro's power at the ballot box, and eliminating ignorant and irresponsible blacks from participating in State and county government, order would be brought out of chaos, and peace and safety assured.

The effects of the amendment have been most beneficial. There is now no friction between the races, and our State, after bitter turmoil, stands renewed and strengthened in all matters involving its material, educational and moral welfare. Today, no one save the vicious, who desire to use the negro's vote for corrupt purposes, would willingly see the amendment repealed, and a great majority of our people, if the constitution of the United States should demand it, would rather give up a part of our representation in Congress than return to conditions that confronted us prior to its enactment.

FOUR YEARS OF PROSPERITY.

Looking backward, we see a four-year era of State prosperity; for while we have heard of yars in the far East, race troubles and labor dissensions in other States and know that pestilence and famine have come with ruin and death into other lands, none of these evils has troubled us, but our people, happy and contented, have been thankful for mercies received, and rejoice in their intelligent progress.

Our farm products have usually brought fair prices, enabling our farmers to pay their debts, and improve their lands. Business has generally been good, with only few failures, while great enterprises, furnishing new markets, and paying good wages, have been established in many localities.

Education has received a new impetus; law and order have been maintained, and mob law scarcely heard of. Our people are living sober, industrious lives, with work for all willing hands, so the incoming administration will have little to do but push forward along lines that have added so greatly to our wealth and improvement.

Death only, in its natural course, has cast its shadows over us, for during these years we mourn some of our noblest and best, occupying all conditions and callings of life, and notably among them, one of North Carolina's most gifted sons, Matthew W. Ransom. Truly we can sorrow over "this old man great," who as soldier, orator, statesman and citizen in war and in peace, ever stood for the defense, upbuilding and glory of the State he loved so well.

Looking to the future, we will not attempt in detail to map out any fixed policy for this administration, preferring to meet emergencies as they come—"sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof"—only suggesting certain measures that may aid in our development.

Here the Governor discussed at length the different problems that confront the State in an able and exhaustive manner, closing with these remarks directed to the members of the Legislature.

Upon you, gentlemen of the General Assembly, devolve most grave and important duties. Fresh from the people in whom our constitution vests all political power, you know their wants, and I feel that the members now sitting will be sufficiently brave, broad-minded and patriotic to meet every difficulty and overcome every obstacle that stands in the way of the upbuilding and betterment of our State. Your power is truly great, and should be exercised wisely and with discretion, for you can enact, amend, suspend or repeal all laws, thus having in your keeping the weal or woe of the State.

Matters of appropriation, increase of salaries, settlement of the State's debts, amendments to school and revenue laws, a legalized primary law, the temperance and divorce questions and a stronger and more stringent vagrant law, laws to help the old Confederate veterans, these and much more, will doubtless be considered by you with patience and wisdom, and such laws enacted as public necessity requires.

As chief of the Executive Department it is made my duty to co-operate with the other branches of the State government, in all that tends to the State's welfare. With no desire to infringe upon or usurp any of the prerogatives vested in the other two branches, I will strictly adhere to my duties, and from time to time inform the General Assembly of the affairs of the State and recommend to it such measures as to me seem expedient and best. Whether the Legislature rejects or adopts my suggestions is a matter for its wisdom, but as the Chief Executive of the State I will enforce the laws you enact, and hold all who refuse to obey them to the strictest accountability. I hope to freely confer with your members at all times, and on all subjects, and I respectfully tender to you access to the papers, records or information possessed by this office, which might help in your investigations or aid in the proper enactment of laws.

Elevated by the people to the position of Chief Magistrate and loving my State devotedly, it will be my honest pleasure and desire to conserve its best and highest interest. Mistakes, I will doubtless make, and often my best endeavors may prove my worst failures; I have taken a solemn oath to perform the duty of this high office, and to keep that oath will be my one purpose and constant prayer. I feel deeply the responsibility I have assumed, and beg the hearty support of all who love the State and rejoice in its success. I understand that some fear because a zealous partisan, I will prove a partisan Governor. I have indeed little respect for a man that is not positive in his political belief, or is ashamed of his party; I am a Democrat from principle; I love my party, and will both follow and maintain its teachings, but in the discharge of my official duties, I will be the Governor of all the people of every condition, race and party. I invite honest criticism of any public acts, but I beg to remind those who may wish to aid me, that advice beforehand, aids more than censure afterwards.

Newspapers with their opportunities of acquiring knowledge and ascertaining the public will, can materially assist me by friendly suggestions and timely warnings. I, therefore, ask their help and will appreciate their kindness.

I invoke the support and prayers of all good people, and placing by reliance on the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe, and asking of Him strength and guidance, I enter upon the discharge of my duties. In their proper fulfillment I solemnly pledge myself in this presence that I will do all in my power to bring peace instead of discord, progress and not disaster, good and not evil, into the hearts and homes of the generous and great people who have reposed in me this most honorable and responsible trust.

PRESENT FOR RETIRING GOVERNOR.

Among the number of presents given Governor Aycock perhaps that a fine watch from the State officers moved him most. Dr. B. F. Dixon presented it in these words: "Governor Aycock, we give you this, not because you have been an ideal public officer, nor because of your services to the State, but because you are Charlie Aycock and we love you."

Williams, to amend chapter 28, public laws of 1904, fixing the time of holding the courts of the 10th judicial district.

On Wednesday the House and Senate attended the inauguration in a body, and but little was done in the way of legislation.

In the Senate Thursday a number of bills were introduced. The following passed second and third reading:

Joint resolution, that 100 sheets of the Revised Statutes be distributed to persons in the State who will examine it carefully and make such recommendations as may be admirable to the codification committee, there being a large number of matters needing careful scrutiny, which would be difficult to give in this Legislature. The work will be laborious, exacting and far-reaching. No harm can come of it and a great deal of good may result. The second and third readings carried unanimously.

That the committee on rules make inquiry the number of and pay of the door-keepers, pages and the other employes in the Senate, and the number actually needed to do the work.

To regulate the pay of jurors in Craven county. That those jurors not chosen to serve, as in cases of special venires, be paid $1.00 per day, this not to apply to Craven county. The bill passed second and third readings and was sent to the House without engrossment.

To abolish Nuese river in township 3, Craven county, as a lawful fence. The bill, upon objection of Mr. Scales, was referred to the committee on counties, cities and towns.

The House had about the usual run of private and local bills. The most important measure proposed so far is Cunningham's child labor bill, the full text of which follows:

In the House Friday a bill was introduced to restrict the sale of all poisonous drugs, requiring the prescription of a physician before they can be sold.

In the Senate Saturday a number of bills of local importance were introduced. In the House the famous Anti-jug law had an airing. But few bills passed their final reading. The question of clerks to the committees was considered and settled.

Shortly after Jarman's arrival at a local hotel he was followed by two detectives, but Police Chief Brinkley got ahead of them in the arrest. Sheriff Middleton, of Onslow county, wired Brinkley to hold Jarman, saying that there was $200 reward for his capture and conviction. Jarman told the local police that he fled for fear of lynching.

That will expire on the 4th of next March.

Throne of England.

Some authorities hold that the coronation chair in Westminster abbey is entitled to be called the throne of England, being the one occupied by the sovereign at coronation. Others maintain that the throne in the house of lords is really the official throne, as it is occupied by the sovereign for state purposes at the opening of parliament. Others, again, say that there is no real throne in the strictest acceptation of the word, and that all the thrones, or chairs of state, in the various palaces throughout the kingdom are equally entitled to be called the throne.

THE MURRAY TRIAL AT DURHAM

Defense Has Still a Number of Witnesses to Testify and it Will Be Wednesday or Thursday Before the Case Reaches the Jury.

Durham, Special.—When court adjourned this afternoon at 4 o'clock, early adjournment being taken in order to allow Judge Peebles opportunity of going up to Hillsboro on the afternoon train to spend Sunday with his daughter, the defence in the W. R. Murray homicide case was nowhere near the end of its evidence.

During the day twenty-one witnesses were examined, nine being sworn and examined this afternoon. Dr. N. M. Johnson, who appeared on the scene just at the close of the fatal fight, and who held the autopsy, was the last witness called. His examination was not completed and he will be the first one to be called Monday morning. It is now evident that the case will not end before Wednesday or Thursday of next week. The defence will not rest before some time Monday afternoon and then there will be rebuttal testimony. The State has much evidence to introduce yet. This will take until Tuesday. The argument of counsel and charge of Judge Peebles will take all of two days. That will make it late Thursday afternoon before the case can reach the jury. It may be possible to get the case to the jury by Wednesday, but not earlier than that time.

Interest in the tiral of this case continues at the same high pitch as has been manifest since it was called. This afternoon the court room was packed to the doors and every attention was given to what the witnesses had to say. During the afternoon session nine witnesses testified. There was no new feature in the testimony. It was along the same line as that introduced this morning. It is understood that the defence has some twenty or thirty witnesses to introduce before the end of the trial.

The State will rely much on what these witnesses say as to the number to be introduced. It is said that the State is saving some of its best witnesses until the last. Just what there is in this cannot be learned.

Judge Peebles issued instructions that the jury be looked after and cared for, and that papers be kept from them and that they cannot be taken to church. "If they go to church," said the judge, "the preacher may take occasion to preach on homicide or something of that sort, and it would not be right. If they read papers they will get the expression of some person, and that would have a tendency to prejudice them. Give them comforts," he said, "and allow them all the Bibles they want, but keep everything else from them and do not allow them to talk to any person."

The defendant is showing the strain under which he has been subjected since the trial began. In the court room that is said and frequently consults with his lawyers, but he looks haggard and careworn. This afternoon while Dr. Johnson was telling of the autopsy and describing to the jury the range of the fatal bullet, the widow of the deceased, who has been present at every session of the court since the case was called, leaned over on the table in front of her and sobbed. Each day she has been attended by her sister, Mrs. Duke, the two sitting close by the lawyers for the State.

Yesterday morning the evidence given was more or less against the prisoner; today the reverse is true. The defendant's witnesses are now telling what they know aout the tragedy and to sum up the progress made since the State rested it case, the defendant has shown by a large number of witnesses that the deceased pulled his pistol and shot at the defendant, missing his mark. The fearful struggle ensued, during which there were two other shots. Then the final struggle and the last shot, this being while both men had hold of the pistol. From this evidence the fatal shot was more of an accident than otherwise.

Tarboro Mill Burned.

Tarboro, Special.—The planing mill of the Tar River Lumber Company, together with all the machinery, with a quantity of dressed and undressed lumber, were destroyed by fire about 5 o'clock Sunday morning, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars. The building was a mass of flames when the firemen first discovered the fire, and nothing could be done except to save the other parts of the mill from destruction. This is the second loss by fire which the mill has sustained recently.

Nothing was taken from Williams & Co's store and the safe was not touched, though it contained $150. There is no clue to the robbers.

DR. CARR'S SAD END

Prominent Physician Kills Himself in Fit of Despondency

ILL HEALTH THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE

Durham N. C., Special.—All of Durham was horrified early Friday morning when the news spread rapidly over the streets that Dr. A. G. Carr, one of Durham's old and highly honored citizens and one among the best known physicians in the State, had taken his own life. He committed suicide in his elegant home on East Main street at 6:45 o'clock, using a 32-calibre pistol and firing one shot into his brain. The barrel of the pistol was placed in his right ear and the ball reached a vital spot, death following instantly.

At the time of the suicide there were but three persons in the house—Dr. Carr, his wife, Mrs. Annie Carr, and the cook. The only son who is now at home, Mr. William Carr, had left but a few minutes before for the Durham Hosiery Mill, where he holds a position. The muffled shot was heard by the cook, who was on the first floor almost immediately under the bath room, where the tragedy was enacted. She ran up stairs and found Dr. Carr in a small closet, connecting with the bath room, in a kneeling position with blood streaming from his head. She ran back down stairs and told Mrs. Carr and then told the colored man who was at the stable when the shot was fired. The latter ran into the bath room and then went to the house of Col. Harper Ervin, just across the street, and told him to come quickly. This he did and just as he ran into the bath room and raised the head of the doctor, he breathed his last. He never uttered a word after the leaden messenger of death was fired into his brain. Coroner Maddry was summoned and examined into the facts surrounding his death, but an inquest was not deemed necessary and the body was turned over to the undertaker.

FAILURE OF HEALTH THE CAUSE.

There is no doubt but that failing health and melancholia caused by his physical condition caused him to take the rash step. For three months or more he had been greatly depressed and did not seem like his former self. He was dejected and care-worn, wishing that the end would come so that he could pass away from his sufferings. No one, however, anticipated that he would take his own life.

The dead man was last seen alive by his son. When Mr. Will Carr started to the hosiery mill about 6:30 o'clock, he saw his father, who was in his night clothes and going towards the bath room.

The position of the dead man when found was such as to leave no doubt but that he knelt in prayer and then fired the fatal shot.

New York, Specia.—The plan to consolidate the different properties of the Seaboard Air Line Railway into a single corporation and to provide additional capital, was made public by the re-organization committee. The committee is composed of Thomas F. Ryan, chairman; James A. Blair, Ernest Thalman, James H. Dooley, T. Jefferson Coolidge, Jr., C. Sidney Shepard, and S. Davis Warfield. The new plan, as announced is as follows: "The capital of the company is re-arranged. Russian Prisoners Pleased.

Nagasaki, By Cable.—The Steamers Kaga and Sunuki have arrived here with 1,600 Russian prisoners of war and 50 officers. All the prisoners have been quartered at Inasa, a village near by, where had also been prepared a lodge for General Stoessel, who will arrive next Saturday. The Russian officers are allowed much liberty within the bounds of the town, but they are under police escort.

General Stoessel and staff will sail from here for Europe on a French mail steamer, January 16. The Russian prisoners are unfeignedly pleased at the end of the hardship of the siege and the considerate treatment of their victors.

Steamer Goes Ashore in Fog.

New York, Special.—While feeling her way through the dense fog early Thursday, in an effort to reach this port, the sugar laden steamer Indus, from West India ports, struck Fire Island bar and is now stuck hard and fast. At midnight the Indus was still ashore, with little prospect that she would be floated before the next high tide.

An Appeal Denied McCue.

Richmond, Va., Special.—The Supreme Court of Appeals refused a writ of error in the case of ex-Mayor McCue, of Charlottesville, convicted of wife-murder and sentenced to hang the 20th of this month. A Charlottesville special says that when the news of the action of the Supreme Court in denying a writ or error was conveyed to McCue, he lost his nerve and fainted.

DEMOCRATIC WHISKEY IN BUNCOMBE.

Some days ago a bill was introduced in the legislaturre by Mr. Webb of, Buncombe county, to prohibit any whiskey distillery operating in the city of Asheville with a capacity of less than 36 bushels daily. The other Asheville distillers claim this bill was introduced to drive all the small distilleries out of business and to give to one distiller the monoply of the whiskey business in Asheville. Wiley P. Black, one of the distillers who will be driven out of business, says that he is a democrat and that he furnished 600 gallons of whiskey to the democratic leaders of Buncombe county in the last campaign with the understanding that the whiskey business of Asheville was not to be molested. This bill passed the legislature Tuesday and will become a law March 1st. Mr. Black charges his party with a breach of faith and says he will bring suit for payment of his whiskey.

During the campaign the democrats charged the republicans with using whiskey to obtain votes, but now it seems that "prohibition" democrats are the ones that flooded Buncombe county with whiskey to buy votes, and besides, if this distiller's charges are true, they are guilty of obtaining goods under false pretense.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature to increase the salaries of Supreme and Superior Court Judges $1,000. The Superior Court Judges now receive $2 500 a year and $250 for travelling expenses. The last legislature increased the number of judges from four to six, costing the tax-payers $5,500 extra (some say the extra number of judges were necessary to try all the cases on account of the great increase in crime under democratic "good government). And this legislature, since they they could not possibly find room for any more judges, thinks it is necessary to increase the salaries of the present number $1,000 each. This was one of the very first appropriations bill introduced in this legislature. It would seem that it would be the best to first provide for the insane of the State, Many of these poor unfortunates now have to be incarcerated in the common jails because there is not room or funds enough appropriated to the asylums for their maintenance. The insane and educational institutions should be looked after before appropriating the tax-payers money for the increase in salaries of Democratic pet office-holders.

Governor Glenn in his inaugural address, expressed more conservative views on the question of negro education than he did in his campaign. In some of his speeches he advocated the tax on the property of the negroes being applied for the education of the negroes and the tax on the property of the whites being applied for the education of the whites. He now changes his views on this question and says he is not in favor of the tax being distributed to the negro children pro rata, but upon a basis suitable to his needs and condition. In taking this view the Governor is only following the plan put into operation by the school law of 1897 and is now still in force, in a measure, throughout the State. So the Governor's recommendations are already provided for fully by the school law of 1897, which no subsequent legislature has dared to repeal, and this law has added more than one-half million dollars to the apportionment of the white schools than was formally applied to that purpose.

Have you asked your neighbor to subscribe to the Caucasian? If not, you should ask him to subscribe so he can keep posted as to what Congress and the State Legislature are doing.

Any one who does not believe that the Democrats are office-seekers should spend just a little while around the legislature and see the number of idle clerks and "laborers" drawing good salaries at the expense of the tax-payers of the State. There are twenty pages and over thirty "laborers" to assist in carrying on the work of this legislature. Many of the committees that meet only once or twice a week have clerks at $4 per day and mileage. This is even better than being a member of the legislature, as the clerks did not have the expenses during the campaign that the legislators had, and are even having less work to do now. There are entirely too many pages and laborers employed and some should be dismissed. There is no reason why the State's treasury should have to pay off party debts.

Our readers will remember that when the mismanagement of the A. & N. C. Railroad was being aired in some of the papers of the State that Gov. Aycock appointed a committee to investigate the management of that road. However, a full report of the committee's finding has never been published. In the legislature yesterday Representative Cowles introduced a resolution that the committee's report be published so that all might read it. The resolution was voted down by a strict party vote, the democrats voting against the resolution. Gov Aycock claimed the committee's report was for his private use If so, it would seem that he should have paid the committee for their work out of his own pocket instead of a the expense of the State.

The first message which Governor Glenn sent to the Legislature after he was sworn in, was to increase the salaries of the Superior Court Judges and Supreme Court Judges.

These places do not go begging, for the lack of suitable men to fill them at the present salary paid them, judging from the number of unsuccessful applicants for these places at every election. If there is no money in these places at the salary paid, certainly a large number of lawyers who are seeking these places are very anxious for honors. We suggest that the State first pay its honest debts and legal obligations before it gets too generous with the public fund to pay increased salaries.

Since our last issue there has been several murders reported in this State and several serious fights and cutting scrapes too numerous to mention just here. During the fusion legislature the democrats said the fusionists were responsible for the crimes committed in the State. If that was true now isn't this great increase in crime under democratic rule the fruits of the lawless campaigns conducted in this State in 1898 and 1900?

Ask your friends if they are taking the Caucasian. If they are not ask them to subscribe.

CORPSE HELD FOR ALLEGED DEBT

Family Claims Doctors Bill Had Been Paid.—Physician May Have to Stand Suit.

Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 17.—Interesting legal complications may grow out of repeated interruptions of the funeral arrangements for the burial of Miss Lottie Kinyon, a young woman who died last Friday of consumption at Southern Pines, N. C., and who was to have been interred here the following day.

The young woman was nineteen years of age, a daughter of Capt. William Kinyon, of New York, but formerly of this city, and she was sent to Southern Pines six weeks ago for treatment by a physician there, it being understood the charges were $10 per week, which amount it is claimed was paid by Capt. Kinyon. The mother of the girl and her sister were at Southern Pines when the death occurred Friday, and all arrangements were made with an undertaker there to send the remains to Wilmington for interment, but Mrs. Kinyon telegraphed her husband, who arrived here from New York Sunday, that the physician claimed over $100 more for treatment and would not allow the body to be removed until the amount was paid.

After a vain effort to adjust the difference by telegraph Capt. Kinyon and his brother-in-law, Constable W. B. Savage, left this morning for Southern Pines to take legal steps to obtain possession of the body, and bring it here for burial, it being claimed that the attending physician had been paid in full.

Proceedings of the Legislature

The Senate passed but one bill Monday and the House only two. Both houses held very short sessions but quite a number of interesting bills were introduced.

A member of the House, Mr. Fowler, of Sampson, by a resolution calls for a committee to see if there are not too many clerks and laborers employed in the House.

Dr. Alexander, of Mecklenburg proposes to put under the vagrant class any able-bodied man who has no other visible means of support than the earnings of his wife or minor children.

Mr. Graham of Lincoln is the author of the bill in the house to appropriate $5,000 annually to the North Carolina Poultry Association one month before the annual show, to be used for premiums and other expenses.

In response to Governor Glenn's message, Representative Warren of Jones introduced a bill to increase the salary of the judges of the superior court and justices of the supreme court. It was referred to the committee on salaries and fees.

Representative Murphy of Rowan in a bill introduced by request, does not go so far as judge Winborne in regard to the divorce law of 1899, which allowed a woman who was married out of the State and was deserted to return to North Carolina and secure an absolute divorce. That act applied only to cases prior to its enactment. A few days ago Judge Winborne introduced a bill to make that law apply to the future. Yesterday Mr. Murphy introduced a bill to re-enact that law and make it applicable only to separations that shall have taken place before its passage, or in other words to extend it 6 years.

THE HOUSE—MONDAY.

191. Resolusion by Mr. Fowler of Sampson to cut off unnecessary expenses of running the general assembly.

192. Mr. Murphy of Rowan, by request—To re-enact chapter 29, laws of 1899, in relation to divorce.

207. Mr Warren—To amend sections 3733 and 3784 of the code, increasing the salaries of judges of the superior courts and justices of the supreme court.

215. Mr. Rector of Henderson—To amend chapter 57, laws of 1897, as amended by the laws of 1899, relating to public drunkenness in Buncombe, Transylvania and Henderson counties.

216. Mr. Winborne of Hertford—Relating to justices of the peace and notaries public, requesting their certificates to show when their term of office expires.

217. Mr. Winborne—Fixing liability of common carriers, making the shipping party liable for loss en route.

218. Mr. Winborne—To permit non-residents to hunt on lands owned by them in this State without license.

THE HOUSE AND SENATE.—TUESDAY.

The Asheville distillery bill finally passed its third reading in the house Tuesday by a vote of 74 to 31, after a long and spirited debate. It has already passed the senate, where it was introduced by Senator Webb.

According to the provisions of this bill no distillery will be permitted to operate after March 1st in the city of Asheville unless its capacity is at least 36 bushels daily.

The fight against the bill in the house was led by Representative Feimster of Catawba, whose objections were that it tended toward the creating of a monopoly, that it was un-Democratic and inconsistent with the Watts bill, that it was strictly a matter for local regulation and that there was no temperance in it. The discussions on the bill were from the Democratic side of the house.

The majority of the house considered it purely a local matter, and voted for it in courtesy to the representatives from Buncombe, Messrs. Murphy and Glenn.

The bill to fix the weight of a bushel or corn meal at 48 pounds and require the labeling of the bags with the amouut and whether bolted or unbolted was referred to the judiciary committee after some little discussion as to its constitutionality.

The senate session Tuesday was brief, lasting less than an hour. The only bill that gave rise to any debate was a measure by Senator Toms to encourage growing ginseng, which he claims will yield $240,000 an acre, in western Carolina.

Several bills were introduced in the Senate, one by Senator Zollicoffer requiring fire escapes, by Senator Turner appropriating $12,500 for permanent improvem[ents] at the institution for the deaf [and] dumb and the blind and a bi[ll] by Senator Aaron to exempt me[n] over 60 from jury duty.

CRIME STALKS ABROAD.

Several Men Seriously Wounded in a Free for All Fight Near Elizabeth.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Jan. 16.—Particulars reached the city yesterday of a very bloody fight which occurred at Davistore in Providence township, about one mile from Berea and about seven miles from this city, Saturday night.

The origin of the trouble, which was between McPhersons and Jennings, seemed to have been caused by the attention that was bestowed on one of the McPhersons and one of Jennings by a young lady of the neighborhood.

Some time ago, so it is reported, John Pritchard, who is a member of the McPherson group, gave the young lady in the case a watch. She in turn either loaned or gave it to young Jennings. Pritchard saw Jennings with the watch and it was decided that all should meet one night last week and settle the matter. The meeting was postponed until Saturday night when all met at Davis' store and the melee began. Just how it started no one seemed to be able to tell, as it all happened at once, but when the smoke cleared away, it was found that three of the McPherson boys were cut, two of them seriously, one having his throat cut and the other his ear entirely severed. Osel Jennings, father of the Jennings boys, aged about sixty years, was right badly cut in the shoulder, and two of the Jennings boys were cut, one in the arm and the other in the face.

During the fight, which lasted for some time, Mrs. Davis, in front of whose house it occurred, acted as surgeon and would bind up the wounds of each as he fell.

Who Has Lied?

Before the election every Republican newspaper and speaker was howling for Roosevelt and 15-cent cotton. Well, we have got Roosevelt and 6½ cent cotton with a tendency for lower prices still and the silence of these one-time howlers has become so intense that it is oppresive Lift upon your heaus and tell the people that you lied like Belzebub and could not help it because you are built that way—Davie Times.

The Davie Times, Davidson Dispatch and a few other Democratic papers have reported that 15-cent yarn so often that we verily believe they are ready to swear to it.

We believe in being fair in politics as in all our dealing with each other. And the newspaper that resorts to these tricks like the demogogue loses in the long run.

Cotton was being sold during the campaign at something like ten cents per pound, and no Republican was fool enough to say that President Roosevelt would raise it to 15 cents, and they were not only not fools enough but they never promised the people any such thing.

When it comes to telling lies we are of the opinion that Republicans are not half in the lead as compared to our Democratic friends when it comes to misrepresenting and misleading the people. How about your crowd telling the people in 1898 that you were not going to pass any disfranchise law, and just as soon as you got the legislature you violated the promise. How about 1900 when you promised them that no white man would be disfranchised when at the last election in 1904 more than thirty thousand white men were stood aside with the convicts and negroes? Answer! Somebody else has lied, and lied like thunder, and it was not Republicans either—let the procession pass.—Davie Record.

If you do, write W. L. Womble, Raleigh, N. C., for his booklet regarding his improved box, The Honey-Maker. It's the best box on the market for the production of fine section, chunk and extracted honey. Mr. Womble has made as high as 200 pounds of fine section honey with a single colony of bees in his box, which he sold at 20 cts. per section, netting him $40. With The Honey-Maker and good stock of Italian bees, you can easily average, in a good section, from $10 to $15 per colony. FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Some Squibs of Interest We Have Gathered With Our Paste-Pot and Shears.

We know of a white district in this county in a thickly settled community that had only 34 weeks of public school during the past four years, only eight and one-half weeks per year, 1908 will soon be here and then the white boys may lookout.—Chatham Citizen.

What about that penitentiary surplus? What has become of it? Supt. Mann is asking the legislature for an appropriation to meet expenses. That looks like a surplus. That looks like a surplus! We dare to say that the $317,000 State surplus is in the same fix by the time all appropriations are paid.—Davie Record.

John Temple Graves says that the Democratic party "has failed as a party of negation" and that it must now become "the party of reform." Well, if our memory is not at fault, it claimed to be "the party of reform" while it was making itself a "party of negations.—Shelby Aurora.

The strict discipline spoken of by Superintendent Mann of the penitentiary is only in name. We are reliably informed that there have been two murderers in the penitentiary since his encumbency. One prisoner committed burglary in the city of Raleigh—and numerous escapes. Fine discipline, that. Superintendent Man may fool some of the but he will not succeed in fooling them all.—Davie Record.

Governor Glenn says that for the eleven paying places in his gift, he has 3,200 applications, not from piehunters, but State servers. But why should Governor Glenn complain? These men helped to elect him and who has been a greater office seeker than he? Now that he is to be Governor he dares to criticize those who follow his example. He must not forget that he himself has his eye on the senatorship already and may need these people again.—State Republican Journal.

A New York paper takes up five columns to explain the inside history of the the recent Democratic campaign. But when you think of it that isn't such a lengthy post mortem examination considering all of the things that ailed it.—Ex.

BOUGHT VOTES WITH WHISKEY.

AN ASHEVILLE DISTILLER SAYS HE FURNISHED DEMOCRATS WITH 600 GALLONS

Furnished on the Assurance That the Asheville Liquor Business Would Not be Molested – Democratic Distiller Claims Party Has Broken Faith.

Some days ago a bill was introduced in the legislature by Webb, of Buncomb county, to not allow any whiskey distillery in Asheville under a capacity of less than thirty-six bushels per day. The day the bill was to be voted on in the House (Friday) the following sensational special from Asheville appeared in the Raleigh Post:

"Asheville, N. C., Jan. 12.—Special.—The Asheville distillery bill which will come up in the House to-morrow, has been the subject of much discussion here, and the friends of the distillers are charging that the legislators from this county have not dealt fairly in making the minimum capacity 36 bushels with a $5,000 bond for maintenance. It is said that all but one distiller will be put out of commission if the bill is passed; and when this is accomplished it is not unlikely that an interesting, if not sensational, suit will be brought by one of the distillers against prominent Democratic leaders of this county for alleged violation of contract. The distiller in question is Wiley P. Black. When asked about the matter this evening, he said:

"The distillery bill agreed upon by Messrs Webb, Gleen and Murphy will have the effect of putting me out business, and I intend to bring suit for $1,000 the amount of liquor furnished the Democrats during the last campaign by me. I am a Democrat, and when the managers came to me and asked what I would contribute I asked what they intended to do about the whiskey legislation. I was assured by several Democrats that the Asheville liquor business would be left alone. With this understanding I agreed to honor the orders of the Democrats for whiskey. I have now on file more than three hundred orders for whiskey amounting to six hundred gallons, that was furnished by me during the campaign. These orders are signed by several county office-holders and may be examined by any one. Mr. Webb's bill will have the effect of ending my business career here, and inasmuch as the whiskey I furnished was by agreement, and the agrement has been broken, I want pay for my goods. I have never knowingly violated the law and have always stood by the Democratic party, but the proposed bill is manifestly unjust.

"I say I am one of the distillers who have not been fairly treated. If Buncombe county was flooded with whiskey by the distillers, as the gentlemen from Buncombe charge, I know that six hundred gallons of it went from my distillery, and was sent out upon the written orders of the Democratic managers who now seek to destroy my business."

A Post reporter called on Messrs. Murphy & Webb and each one of them denied any knowledge of the agreement. Mr. Webb said the statement that he had made any agreement with the whiskey men was an "infamous lie." But now read from another special from Asheville that appeared in Sunday's Post, in which the reporter says he has seen the orders on file from Democrats in Buncombe county for whiskey:

"Asheville, N. C., Jan. 14.—Special—As a result of the disclosure made by the Asheville distiller, Wiley P. Black, to the effect that large quantities of whiskey went from his distillery during the last campaign upon the order of leading Democrats and for the Democratic committee, Solicitor Mark W. Brown this afternoon had subpoenas issued for many Democrats and Republicans to appear before the grand jury at the February term of court and tell what they know about the use of whiskey in the last election. Including among those summoned are Chairman J. J. Mackey of the Democratic county executive committee, who is now in Raleigh; R. B. Roberts, Chairman of the Republican county executive committee, all the Republican county executive committee, all the Republican county candidates who were defeated, the successful Democratic candidates, and others connected with the campaign, including the distillers.

The disclosurers have created a stir here. Black reiterated his former charges to-day, and the Post correspondent was shown a large number of orders from Democrats for whiskey, addressed to W. P. Black, and alleged by him to have been honored with the understanding that the whiskey traffic was to be let alone."

The bill passed its second reading in the House Friday, but at the request of the author of the bill the final reading was postponed to a later date.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing I tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death) and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain," —Mrs. George B. Hall, Jackson, Tenn.

Mrs. Anna Nelson

Sure Relief for Women.

No. 38 Central Ave.
Hot Springs, Ark., April 30, 1903.

Eighteen months ago I was so completely run down that my body ached from head to foot. My back seemed to break in two and I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen. I could not afford to lay off and take a rest, and no medicine helped me any.

A friend told me how much Wine of Cardui built her up and advised me by all means to take it. The day I took the first dose the recovery of my health began. It was nearly three months before I was entirely cured, but at the end of that time I was in better health than I had been for seven years. I look on Wine of Cardui as the most blessed medicine that a woman could possibly take when she feels sick and tired of life.

Anna Nelson
Orator, Wednesday Chautauqua Club.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Nelson describes the condition of thousands of women. That condition comes by slow stages. Usually the important function of menstruation is at first slightly irregular. Then comes the painful periods. Bearing-down pains and ovarian inflammation follow. Finally the nervous system gives way and the whole system has become affected and the pains rack the body from head to foot.

Wine of Cardui is a menstrual regulator of established reputation. No woman who takes it suffers as Mrs. Nelson suffered. It gives speedy and complete relief from the torturing menstrual agonies which are making so many women invalids today. Do not let yourself come to the pitiable condition Mrs. Nelson describes.

Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and begin treatment immediately.

BABY'S TERRIBLE SORE

"My child was a very delicate baby. A terrible sore and humor broke out on his body, looking like raw flesh, and causing the child untold agony. My physician prescribed various remedies, none of which helped at all. I became discouraged and took the matter into my own hands, and tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment with almost immediate success. Before the second week had passed the soreness was gone, not leaving a trace of anything. Mrs. Jeannette H. Block, 281 Rosedale St., Rochester, N. Y."

Poison Ivy.

Poison ivy (Rhus toxleodendron) is also known as three-leaved ivy, and in some locations as poison oak. In growth it much resembles the harmless Virginia creeper, or American ivy (Ampelopsis quinquefolia). To avoid mistaking one for the other, remember that the poison ivy has but three leaflets on a stem, while the Virginia creeper has five. Children distnguish them as "threeleaved ivy" and "fiveleaved ivy." The poison ivy bears clusters of small smooth berries, that are greenish white when ripe.

Reward for Inventive Mind.

The inventive mind of William Crust, of Greenfield, 12 years old, conceived the idea of improvising a bag to carry chestnuts in. He tied cord about the ankles of his trousers, filled his apparel and managed to waddle home with twenty-seven quarts of fine nuts.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haule, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache, by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in the back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend your medicine."—MRS. DEATH OF JUDGE PHILIPS

Tarboro, Special.— Hon. Frederick Philips died at his residence in this place Saturday morning at eight o'clock. He had been in failing health for more than a year and returned only a few weeks ago from Baltimore, where he had been to Johns Hopkins hospital for treatment.

Judge Philips was one of Tarboro's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens. He belonged to a large and influential family that were among the earliest settlers of the country. He was a son of the late Dr. J. J. Philips, long a popular and skillful physician. All his life had been spent here and he was known to everybody in the county. He was a successful lawyer, a man whose knowledge of business enabled him to accumulate a large fortune, a public-spirited and patriotic man, and a man of uncommon sense and judgement. His last public appearance was when he delivered the memorial address two years ago. He had prepared at great labor and after long research a list of all the men Edgecombe sent to the Confederate army. In that address he paid a beautiful tribute to the women of the Confederacy. He took deep interest in everything that pertained to the Confederacy and his old comrades, and heartily seconded the efforts to build the Confederate monument unveiled here last year. His health was such that he could not attend and a telegram was sent of regret that he could not be present at the unveiling.

Bloody Fight Over a Girl.

Elizabeth City, Special.—Particulars have reached the city of a bloody fight which occurred at Davis' store, in Providence township, about one mile from Berea, and about seven miles from this city, Saturday night. The origin of the trouble, which was between the McPhersons and the Jennings, seems to have been caused by the attention that was bestowed on one of the McPhersons and one of the Jennings boys by a young lady of the neighborhood. Sometime ago, so it is reported, John Pritchard, who is a member of the McPherson group, gave the young lady in the case a watch. She in turn loaned or gave it to young Grover Jennings. Pritchard saw Jennings with the watch, and it was decided that all should meet one night last week and settle the matter. The meeting was postponed until Saturday night, when all met at Davis' store and the melee began. Just how it started no one is able to tell, but when the smoke had cleared away it was found that three of the McPherson boys were badly cut, two of them seriously, one having his throat cut and the other had his ear entirely severed. Daniel Jennings, father of the Jennings boys, aged about 60 years, was right badly cut in the shoulder, and two of the Jennings boys were cut, one in the arm and the other in the face. During the fight which lasted for some time, Mrs. Davis, in front of whose house it occurred, acted as surgeon, and bound up the wounds of each injured combatant as he fell.

Simmons on Statehood.

Senator Simmons addressed the Senate Monday afternoon in opposition to the Beveridge statehood bill. Senator Simmons occupied the attention of the Senate for about two hours, this being the second extemporary speech which the senior Senator from North Carolina has delivered in the Senate. The chief contention of the Senator was that Arizona would suffer most by the proposed union with New Mexico, and the delegate from Arizona referred to the speech as an exceedingly effective presentation of the subject. Senator Simmons said that his interest in the subject of statehood had been increased by facts given him by Mr. B. R. Lacy, who held the position of Treasurer in his State. Mr. Lacy, said the Senator, had made a canvas of Arizona during the last campaign. In presenting the claims of Arizona to separate statehood Mr. Simmons made the declaration that while much of the land in Arizona was arid that it would respond to irrigation in such a way as to become as productive as the valley of the Nile, which had sustained sixty millions of people.

Some Important Measures.

Among the important measures so far presented to the House the following are under consideration:

The bill before the Legislature, providing for the Soldiers' Home, carries $15,000 annually for maintenance this year and next year, $3,000 for building improvements this year and $2,000 for next year. This will enable the home to provide for 150 veterans.

Mr. Warren, of Jones', introduced a bill to increase the salaries of Superior and Supreme Court judges to $3,000 all around, with no other allowances. This bill is similar to the Scales Senate bill, except the amount of salary is $3,000 instead of $4,000. It is believed to be the amount the House members will agree to pass with but little opposition.

Another bill of Mr. Warren's increases pay of jurors in magistrates' courts from 25 cents to 50 cents per day.

Major Graham's bill to amend the homestead law proposes to give a homesteader the right to select a different tract of land from the one first assigned him, should circumstances arise to make it preferable.

One of the bills of general imoprtance introduced by Winborne provides that the transportation company issuing the receipt for freight shall be the responsible party in a suit or claom for lost or damaged property shipped.

A bill by Mr. Warren of interest to the legal profession provides that a civil case shall stand for trial the first term if the summons and a verified complaint is issued and served 30 days prior to the term of court.

Mr. Fowler presented a bill giving a lawyer appearing for a client on a contingent fee a lien on the judgment, and to make it necessary for the party defendant to get consent of the lawyer before compromising or settling the case with the client. Mr. Fowler also introduced a resolution requiring the committee to be composed of three Democratic and three Republican members of the House to investigate and report on the number of clerks, laborers and other employes of the House and as to how many there were who had nothing to do.

LASTING RELIEF.

J. W. Walls, Superintendent of Streets of Lebanon, Ky., says:

"My nightly rest was broken, owing to irregular action of the kidneys. I was suffering intensely from severe pains in the small of my back and through the kidneys and annoyed by painful passages of abnormal secretions. No amount of doctoring relieved this condition. I took Doan's Kidney Pills and experienced quick and lasting relief. Doan's Kidney Pills will prove a blessing to all sufferers from kidney disorders who will give them a fair trial."

Getting Rid of Rats.

A farmer tells the Sedalia Capital that he rid his farm of rats in the following manner: "On a very large number of pieces of old shingles, I put about one-half a teaspoonful of molasses, and on that, with my pocketknife, I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye, and then placed the shingles around under the stable floors and under the cribs. The next morning I found forty dead rats, and the rest vamoosed the farm and left for parts unknown. I have cleared many farms of the pests in the same way and have never known it to fail."—Kansas City Journal.

Railroading in Japan.

Japan has 4235 miles of railway, of which 210 miles were constructed in 1903. The number of passengers carried on these railways in 1903 was 110,000,000, the freight transported was 16,122,671 metric tons and the cash receipts amounted to about $23,800,000.

Corset Shoes for Children.

Corset footwear for children is made a specialty by a New York shoe manufacturer. Pliable whalebone braces are inserted in grooves on the sides, and may be adjusted to any foot. The purpose of these stays is to preserve a proper angle, thus allowing of a natural, straight and perfect shape. It is said that by use of the corset shoe bow legs, weak ankles and strained muscles and tendons are made impossible.

BOY GAVE THEM IDEA.

How Railroad Men Got Their Engine Off "Dead Center."

A traveling man relates that while riding on the new Orient line between Harper and Anthony a few days ago, one of the side rods of the engine broke, and the other side stopped on a "dead center," so that when the repair was made it was impossible to start the train again. He says:

"The engineer, the conductor, and all the passengers took turns going over the thing and trying to devise a way to make it run. Finally a boy came out of the field where he had been plowing to see what was going on. He crawled through the wire fence and sat down on the bank and fanned himself with his straw hat.

"'If you'd back that last car up the grade an' let 'er come down kerchunk, that 'ud start her,' he finally suggested, deliberately.

"The railroad men sniffed contemptuously, but the passengers sided with the boy. Finally the conductor gave orders that the rear car be uncoupled. No less than fifty passengers caught hold and pushed the car up the grade. Once at the top the car was let go. The loose coach gained momentum as it came down the hill, and in spite of the engineer's admonition to 'let her come down easy,' the emergency battering ram crashed into the train with a tremendous thump. The engine was bumped off 'center' all right."—Kansas City Star.

MIGHT HAVE SAVED IT.

A Lot of Trouble From Too Much Starch Food.

A little boy of eight years whose parents did not feed him on the right kind of food, was always nervous and suffered from a weak condition of the stomach and bowels. Finally he was taken down with appendicitis and after the operation the doctor, knowing that his intestinal digestion was very weak, put him on Grape-Nuts twice a day.

He rapidly recovered and about two months thereafter, his Father states, "He has grown to be strong, muscular, and sleeps soundly, weighs 62 pounds, and his whole system is in a fine condition of health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

It is plain that if he had been put on Grape-Nuts at an earlier period in his life, and kept from the use of foods that he could not digest, he never would have had appendicitis. That disease is caused by undigested food decaying in the stomach and bowels, causing irritation and making for the growth of all kinds of microbes, setting up a diseased condition which is the active cause of appendicitis, and this is more marked with people who do not properly digest white bread.

Grape-Nuts is made of the selected parts of wheat and barley and by the peculiar processes of the cooking at the factory, all of the starch is turned into sugar ready for immediate digestion and the more perfect nourishment of all parts of the body, particularly the brain and nerve centres.

The English Language.

"No; you would say a shoal of fish," was the American's reply.

"Could you say a flock of oxen?"

"No; a drove of oxen."

"A flock of bees?"

"No; a swarm of bees."

"Really," said the Frenchman, "this is confusing to me."

"I don't wonder that it is," the American returned. "For every different crowd there is a different word in our language. Thus we say a covey of partridges, a bevy of quails, a nide of pheasants, a flight of doves, a wisp of snipe, a muster of peacocks, a brood of grouse, a siege of herons, a building of rooks, a stand of plovers, a watch of nightingales, a clattering of choughs, a pack of wolves, a cast of hawks, a herd of swine, and so on. In the technical books on sports and hunting you will find that every crowd of birds and of animals has its own special name. These special names well trained sportsmen always use."—New York Press.

To Abolish Spectacles.

Optimists believe that Dr. Stephen Smith, surgeon of the eye department of Battersea Park Hospital, Nottingham, England, has discovered a new treatment of the eye which will practically abolish spectacles. It is styled "manipulation of the eye," and is gentle and gradual, occupying a few minutes daily, causing no pain and having no injurious effect of any sort. Some patients are cured in a week, and in all cases improvement is rapid.

Thirty patients who had been obliged to wear spectacles for a long time have so far been treated by Dr. Smith, and, with a single exception, all have discarded glasses and can now read, at either long or short distances, as well as people who have never needed assistance.

A Well Deserved Tribute.

The awarding of the Grand Prize to the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., New Haven, Conn., at the St. Louis Exposition, confers upon this company the highest mark of distinction attained by any manufacturer of guns or ammunition in the world. Although a great number of medals were given, the only award of a Grand Prize was to the Winchester Repeating Arms Co.; given as it was in competition with the leading manufacturers of all countries, it testifies decidedly to the superiority of Winchester rifles, shotguns and ammunition. The success attained by the Winchester Repeating Arms Co. at this exposition is in line with past honors. At the Paris Exposition they received the Grand Prix, and wherever exhibited have always been given the highest possible prizes. This latest recognition of superiority is the natural result of thirty years of careful and successful endeavor in maintaining the high quality of Winchester rifles, shotguns and ammunition.

A Remarkable Wind Cave.

In the Black hills of South Dakota there is fine scenery, including a "wind cave," ten miles north of Hot Springs. A wind blows out of the cavern in summer and into it in winter, probably because in summer the air outside is warmer and in winter cooler than it is inside. A remarkable feature of the cave is a "boxwork" or honey-combed structure of calcite on some of the ceilings and walls. The origin of it appears to be that the limestone occurs in polygonal blocks with partitions of calcite between the blocks, and while the limestone decays and falls out, in the form of dust or sand, the calcite partitions remain in their places.

One Difference.

"I'd like to know what's the difference between a guesser and a forecaster," said Mrs. Wonder, puzzling her mind over the ante-election figures in one of the papers.
